

■ The Saudi Bahraini Institute for the Blind, Isa Town, received a BD350 Braille machine as a donation from the Pakistani Women Association (PWA). The six-member PWA delegation also presented 60 happy meals to the children, donated by McDonald's. Above, at the handover are PWA community service chairperson Shazeen Asas, fourth from left, institute director Abdul Wahid Al Khayat, sixth from left, students, representatives and volunteers from the institute and the association.